tower tales 1957

Assistant Principal August Vander Meulen and Principal A. J. Barrett have a reason to be proud. These trophies earned in '56-'57 are for the Regional Basketball Championship, State Wrestling Championship, Poynette Curling Second Event title, and State Wrestling runner-up title.

a word of introduction

The entire staff is proud to present Tower Tales 1957. This book is the thirty-fifth edition since East formally opened in the fall of 1922.

We, the staff, feel that this year's annual marks a change from all previous yearbooks at East. The format of the book has been revised to what we believe is a more workable order. With stress on photographs, we hope to have eliminated excessive copy, and to have made it simple and readable. The page layout has changed considerably from past years, as has the style of printing.

This, then, is Tower Tales 1957, Madison East High School. . . . .

operetta: sweethearts

This year the Spring Play and Operetta were combined into the musical comedy "Sweethearts". This colorful production features musical lead roles and also more dialogue than most operettas. — Probably the biggest difference was the fact that Miss Williams directed the dramatic portion of the show; Miss Vogelbaugh had charge of the choir; and Mr. Woollen directed the orchestra.

The story centers around an imaginary princess of the imaginary nation of Zilania, who was kidnapped when she was an infant during a revolution and left in the garden of the Laundry of the White Geese. Dame Paula, proprietess of the laundry, adopts the princess. Zilania is about to return the monarchy form of government so Prince Franz and several other politicians come searching for the lost princess, the rightful heir to the throne. All in all, it was a plot complicated enough to sustain interest, and zany enough to keep the audience laughing.

Of course we can't forget the wonderful and delightful songs presented by the cast. "Sweethearts", which Marty and Vicki sang; the dance of the wooden shoes, with Jan Harrington and the pilgrims; the "Bells of Anbelus"; Slingsby's "I Don't Know How I Do It, but I Do." All these and many more, together with the hard work of the teachers and the students, made a wonderful musical that will long be remembered.

Marty Clarke and Vicki Thomas gaze adoringly at each other. . . . . just practicing for their 'on stage' moments.

spring dance

Moonlight Leilani was chosen as the theme of this year's Junior-Senior spring dance held in the East High gym, May third.

A Hawaiian atmosphere provided a gay and colorful setting for the fun-seeking mood of the couples who danced until midnight. The gym was well disguised as an island of enchantment. Leis, palm trees, and multi-colored flowers added to this "paradise island" theme. A grass hut, while adding to the Hawaiian mood, also served as a resting place for tired feet.

The punch bowl was very popular all right. Sophomores girls dressed in Hawaiian-type costumes served pineapple punch.

Howard Kenney's band provided the music for "Moonlight Leilani".

MOONLIGHT LEILANI

Moonlight Leilani means moonlight memories for those who attended the dance. Dancing and the grand march will always be remembered.

As Howard Kenney's band played "Sweet Leilani", the theme song, the Junior class president, Webb Spractz, and his date, Pat Chare, lead off the first dance after the march

The grand march, the high-light of the dance, was lead by the Senior and Junior officeers.

That "ole harvest moon" looked down and saw Ed Kamm, Betty Anderson, Mike McCormick, Pat Gerry, Gerry Ahlvin, Bill Winter, Ed. Wilson and Pat Hagen having a wonderful time.

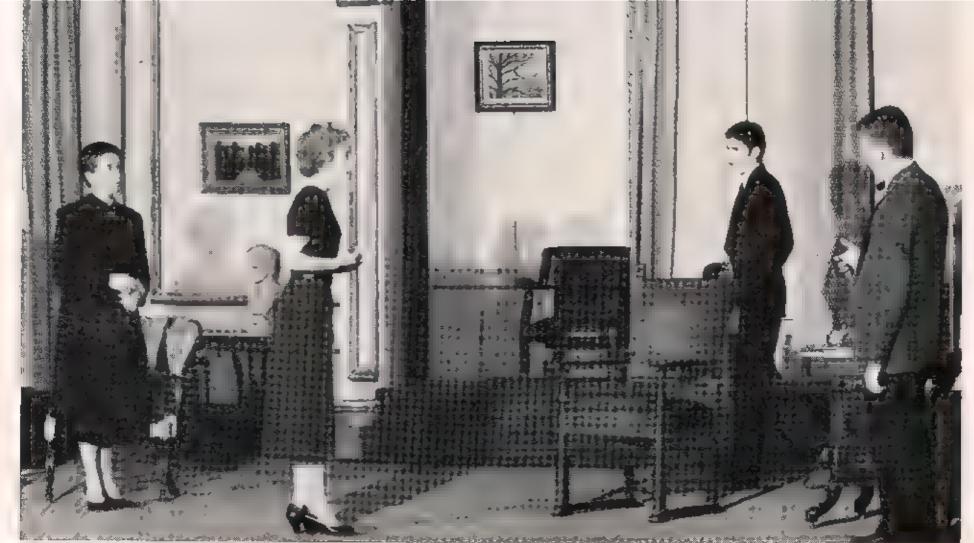

Doing a bit of clowning with Mr. Scarecrow and Peggy Ripp, Joan Lampe, and Mary Carlson.

During the intermission, the Triettes, Sandy Spears, Jackie Gerth, and Marilyn Mackie, sang "Autumn Leaves".

fall party: HARVEST MOON

The fall party, "Harvest Moon", given by the senior class was held November 16. The couples danced from 8:30 to 11:30 in the East High Gym, as Ted Ross's band played amid an autumn decorated dance floor with a huge, orange harvest moon suspended among silver stars.

Desperately the "kind lady" of our play, Jackie Gerth preads for her freedom, but John Esse, ring-leader of the crooks is deaf to her pleas. Also wait ing his reply are Pat Smith and Tom Bontly.

In one of his violent moments, John Eisele, villain of Kind Lady, vents his anger in a sharp slap on accomplice, Kathy Johnson.

fall play: KIND LADY

Quite a challenge to both east and audience was this year's fall play, Kind Lady. Fortunately the challenge was met and conquered by all people involved, the stage helpers, property committee, lighting committee, east, and director.

The play, a mystery packed full of tension and suspense, is the story of how a wealthy matron is kept a prisoner in her own home by a group of ruthless gangsters. The ending especially had the aspects of a real thriller — remember — the pounding and knocking. ... "It had to be the policeman."

The cast of Kind Lady can relax for the first time in weeks after the performance of the tense drama. The cast lined up for the curtain call is: Kathy Johnson, Delores Klubertanz, Dick Jones, Carol Moir, Doranne Wilson, John Eisle, Jackie Gerth, Tom Bontly, Pat Smith, Globs Murray, Donna Ritchie, and Charles Brown.

pageant night

October 20 was the date of this year's Pageant Night. Since United Nations Week was being observed, it was very fitting that the band use this as their theme.

As the band went into appropriate formations, they played the national anthems of several different countries, all members of the U. N. Students wearing the national costumes of each country marched onto the field as the nation's song was played as a tribute to each country.

Some of the countries that were represented were: France, the Netherlands, Russia, Mexico, China, and of course, the United States, which was represented by a lanky Uncle Sam. The staff wishes to give credit to the chorus, also, which furnished the background music for all the tableaux of Pageant Night.

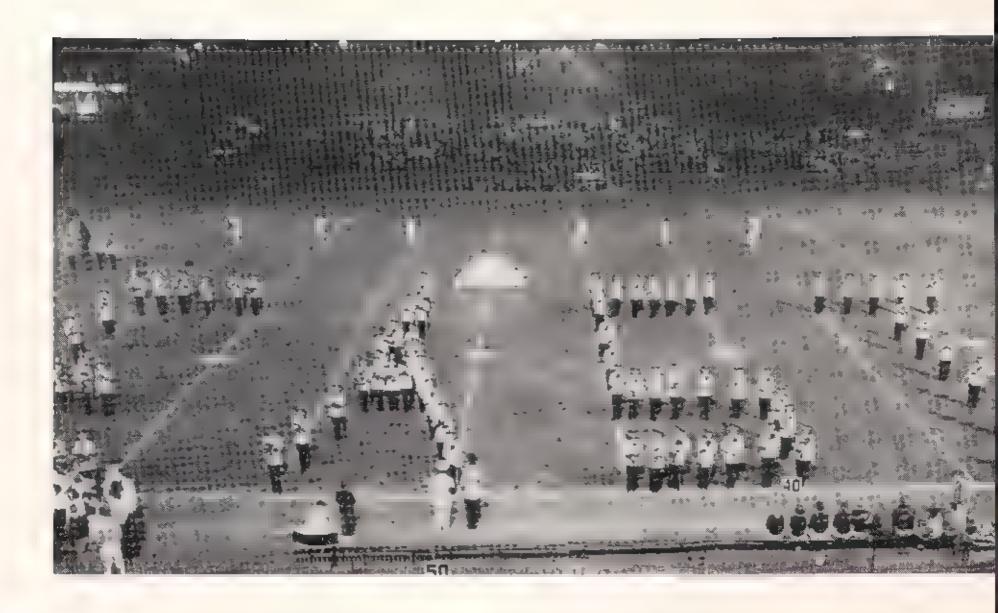

There must be something very interesting going on to make these three piccolo players look away from their music while the rest of the band plays on Dick Jones has been our drum major for three years. Here he rates some special recognition for fine leadership.

Dick Jones, again leads band through one of its many welcome half-time exhibitions.

east salutes the united nations

The band forms the letters of our Alma Mater. . .

part of the best land in the world. . . .

. . . which is just a part of the great organization to promote world peace.

Everyone remembers fifth hour as the time when the band practices on the field during fair weather. Even though there were other half-time shows to put on this fall, the band spent some time each day practicing for the Pageant. There were even some early morning rehearsals — right on the head 7:30 a.m.

"Interesting", "impressive", and "appropriate", were descriptive terms used by the spectators that night to describe the 1956 Pageant.

homecoming dance: KORAL KICKOFF

King Angelo LaBarro and Queen Lynne Ligggett with the court of honor led the Grand March Koral Kickoff, sponsored by the East Side Youth Mayor's Council, was the title of East's first home-coming dance. As this was East's 35th year, coral, the 35th anniversary color, was the basis of the decorations.

Bob Leysen's Combo provided the music for the couples who danced from 9:00 to 12:00 at the East Side Business Men Association Clubhouse on October 19.

Angelo LaBarro and Lynne Liggett were crowned king and queen, after their names were drawn from the name box during the intermission of the dance. With a court of three other couples they led the grand march.

"An unforgettable evening" was the verict of many who attended East's first Homecoming Dance.

auds of the year

Through the year many auditorium programs are presented by the students of East and by paid performers or speakers. The speech class programs were especially worthwhile and provided a varied type of entertainment. In addition the annual talent show gave the student body a chance to see what talents their school mates have. Among all the memories of high school there always remains that of the pep auds lead by the cheerleaders, (pictured below). Besides there are always the traditional programs, the Christmas and Thanksgiving programs, the pop concert, the senior day and, and Arbor day and.

John Rockstad offers his hand to Ann Whitney as part of the pantomine which they gave for the first speech and. The others were in the auditorium program, also. They are: J. Clawson, S. Whitefoot, P. Smith, S. Spears, J. Nielson, D. Jones, M. Thompson, S. Thompson, C. Persen, J. Lunde, G. Murray, and J. Schuelke

Our cheerleaders pose dressed in colorful costumes just after they completed the skit for a pep aud

Front Row: J. Nedderman (Japan), S. Ellestad (USA.), V. Thomas (Hawaii) J. Maes (Hawaii), and J. Borquist (Chian).

Back Row: P. Kernan (American Indian), J. Todd (American Indian), J. Kuchni (France), and D. Schmelzkopf (clubwoman).

Looking much like Parisian chorus girls, several girls danced the can-can for the talent show. They are D. Hughes, F. Hauptmann, J. Kuehni, P. Ripp, P. Kernan, J. Todd, N. Schlichen maier, K. Kelley, J. Refvik, J. Lunde, and B. Zwank.

'56 and '57

Late in 1956 Rock 'n Roll reached its peak, for at the year's end calypso seemed to be the coming thing in record popularity. Teenagers danced and listened to songs like "Young Love", "Singing the Blues", "True Love", "Banana Boat Song", "Marianne", "Friendly Persuasion", "Don't Forbid Me", "Love Me Tender", "Blueberry Hill", "All Shook Up", and "Little Darlin". Elvis Presley's recordings of "Hound Dog" and "Heartbreak Hotel" made him the biggest entertainment draw in years. Harry Bela fonte's Calypso album and the music from My Fair Lady, Broadway's biggest smash musical, were two of the biggest sellers on long plays.

At the theater, boys sat holding the hand of their favorite girl watching such pictures as "Lust for Life", "Giant", "War and Peace", "The Spirit of St. Louis", and "The Ten Commandments". The time length of movies increased, and the screen also expanded. "Around the World in Eighty Days" won an Oscar as the best movie of the year. Yul Brynner as the king in "The King and I" and Ingrid Bergman in the title role of "Anastasia" were selected best actor and actress of the year, respectively.

Girls mourned the death of James Dean, a young actor who was killed in an auto accident. Grace Grimaldi (formerly Kelly) had a baby.

Television quiz shows kept giving more money away and devising methods wherein the winner would not lose so much in taxes. Comedians had a slack season, but TV singer personalities were right in step. Mumbling Ed Sullivan and glib Steve Allen waged a bitter conflict to receive Sunday night supremacy of the video screen.

Popular reading for teenage consumption involved two magazines: MAD and DIG. Both can most elegantly be described as "Crazy man, cool!"

On the news fronts trouble brewed on the Suez Canal when Nasser of Eygpt took control of the canal. Hungarians fled their native country, which was in revolution. In the U.S., President Eisenhower was re-elected for a second term. Senator McCarthy of Wisconsin died in office. The Senate held an investigation of labor racketeering. The Mad Bomber was caught in New York after a sixteen year search. And last, a chimpanzee turned artist. The pun here was "making monkeys of artists or millionaires out of zoo keepers."

Judy Reineke is one of many sophomore girls who pasted pictures of Elvis Presley in their lockers. Could be that they like Elvis.

A scene from "Lust for Life", a film biography of Vincent van Gogh, with Kirk Douglas and Everett Sloane as Dr. Gachet.

clothing fads

All over the country, boys have surrendered their blue jeans for buckle-clad slacks. To complete their outfit, the boys wear the typical Ivy League shirt of stripes, buttoned down collar, and inverted back pleat.

The girls, not to be out done, added buckle-trimmed skirts and Ivy league blouses to their wardrobes. To complete their ensemble they were blazer jackets.

For after school apparel the girls simply changed their skirt for either a pair of Bermuda shorts accessorized with knee socks or a pair of peg leg slacks. Boys with a little more nerve ventured out in Bermuda shorts also.

For more feminine-minded girls, there were the "sissy blouses." These blouses with rows upon rows of lace dressed up an every day skirt or a pair of torcador slacks. To add spice of color to their blouses, an claborately trimmed necktic was worn. Black suede flats or leather flats completed these out-fits.

Saddle shoes proved to be the favorite all round shoe for both boys and girls this year. The girls, however, added the famous Ivy League buckle to their saddle shoes and also flattened and lowered the shoe into what is called the "bubble" saddle.

The finishing touches of this year's typical teenager is his hairdo. The "bun" proved to be the intermediate stage between the girls short hairdo and the returning ponytail. The boys this year, as in years gone by, had their hair cut in the traditional "Hollywood."

known as Bermuda shorts, and would you look at those argyle socks!

Francie Hauptmann and Tom Bontly, shown here, are wearing Ivy League school clothes commonly worn this year at E a s t. Note the button down collars and the box pleats, and of course the buckle on the back of Tom's slacks and Francie's skirt.

scholarship

Everyone should realize the importance of scholastic achievement. East High School recognizes the time and energy the students put into preparing their assignments. We receive this recognition individually through our report cards. Honor flags are also bestowed on the top ranking homerooms. The eight and ten point students are very happy to receive the special privileges which they are granted. An after-school group looking over their report cards with mixed emotions are: Roald Mockrud, Joan Foss, Norma Pfeiffer, Dick Jones, Beverly Braun.

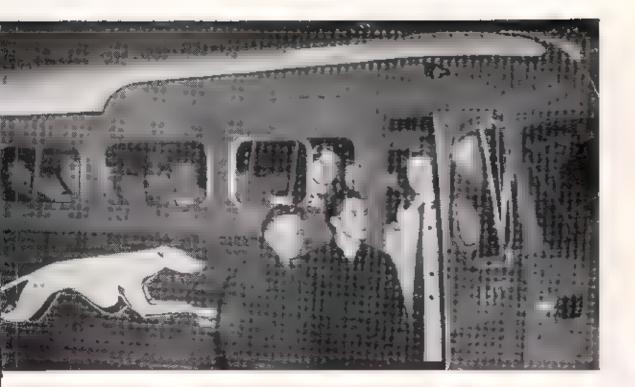

Homework takes time and tests are hard, but all seems worth it when your homeroom is awarded by an honor flag. The girls in the senior homeroom 309 were awarded this flag several times during their high school days. The proud possessors of this flag are:

Front Row: N. Sieber, D. Siggetkow, J. Todd, and C. Solsrud.

Second Row: M. Smith, Y. Schultz, W. Schmudlach, S. Thompson, P. Smith, S. Strand, J. Stignand, and J. Frye.

Back Row: R. Swiggum, S. Spears, M. Thompson, V. Strickland, J. Stormer, and S. Vieth,

Ready to roll for the Beloit football game (Oct. 12) we see Randy Parker, Sheldon Ellestad, and Mary Carlson in front of the chartered bus.

social events

And inside the bus more East fans are waiting to start. This was one of the many bus trips sponsored by the East Side Youth Mayor's Council throughout the year. It is only one of the ways the students cheer on their team and show their school spirit.

Seated: Maxine Nelson and Dorothea Siggelkow.

Standing: Gary Peterson, Sheldon Ellestad, Dan Farwell, and Greg Schill.

The first twirp dance of the year was sponsored by the student council after the West game on Dec. 7. True to the name, the girls danced with the boys of their choice, but they also ended up footing the bill. A huge success. No doubt next year's council will recommend a similar social whirl, Connie Solsrud seems to spearhead this group of typists. Sitting in row one are: Pat Hamre and Jackie Gerth. Melvin Litchfield and Faye McLaine are in row two.

Mr. Knipping watches as Jim Rehbein, Bonnie Slack, Shirley Erickson, Sharon Kelsey, Anne McCormick, Sara Olson, Larry Call, and Kirsten Flagstad nervously observe the boa constrictor in biology class.

classes

This is an empty classroom at night after everyone has cleared out. It could be a history, math, or English room. It seems funny to see a room so quiet after an average of a hundred and fifty students have sat in these desks during the day.

This is a studyhall. Oh yes, they were fun, though they were meant for studying. These students look as though they were trying for eight point or better grades.

ambassadors

East was very fortunate to have these three teachers from India in our school the second semester. Left to right, they are Mr. |G. S. Krishnaraju, who specializes in chemistry, Mrs. Sivan Gogia, in general science, and Mr. S. Sivasubramanyam in biology. This educational study was made possible through the Ford Foundation and the University of Wisconsin School of Education

Mr. Peterson and Mr. Krishnaraju are teaching a chemistry class together. Mr. Krishnaraju is at East to observe methods of teaching science in American schools. Along with this, the three teachers from India strive to promote good will and understanding of their country, its ideals, and its social customs.

This is a group of American Field Service Students. Included are Martin Clarke, Pat Hamre, Dorothea Siggelkow, and Paco Boluda. During the previous summer, Martin journeyed to West Germany, Pat to Switzerland, and Dorothea to Denmark. Paco came from Madrid, Spain, where he had already graduated from high school, but enrolled in senior classes here.

This summer, Nancy Frailing will represent East High in Norway and Keith Sperling in Finland, through the A. F. S.

Tallying the votes is the job of this Senior committee. They are: Nancy Sieber, Martha Thompson, Jo Maes, and Dan Farwell. Seated is Alvin Reinke.

Joan Lampe and Pat Metz, as campaign managers, are putting up one of the many election posters situated around school.

elections of the year

In a presidential election year when the attention of the entire country was focused on the national election, here at East we held our own elections. With eye-catching posters and colorful campaign ribbons we carried on the elections. After a careful counting of the ballots, the Junior class elected Webb Spraetz, president; Frank Parish, vice-president; and Jean Klevens, secretary. The Seniors elected as their officers Jim Rasmussen, president; Sonny Hill, vice-president; and Judy Todd, secretary. Besides the class elections, the school elected their representatives to the Student Council.

A Junior committee is shown working on results of their election. They are: Bob Pernot, Donna Baker, Joan Keller, Bill Mueller, and Bob Peterson. Seated is Melvin Patterson.

cafeteria

"One more hour till lunch". The 4a and 4b periods are looked upon as most necessary to be able to live through the rest of the day. Much time and effort are put into preparing the meals. Many thanks should go to the hard-working kitchen crew.

Looking over the hot dogs, mashed potatoes, and fresh asparagus are Jerry Moc, Gibbs Murray, and Fred Bon Durant with other students awaiting their turns.

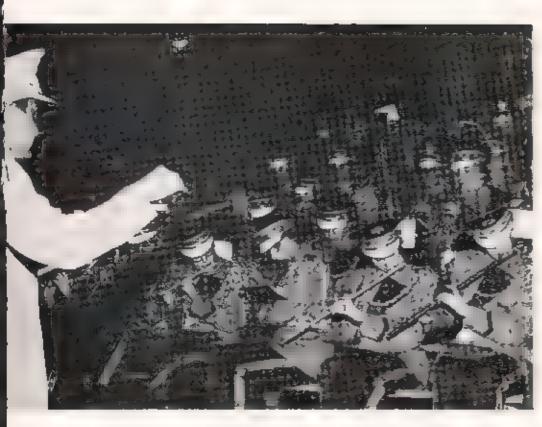

Other members of the Cafeteria Staff: Mrs. Sagen, Mrs. Hinz. Mrs. Seifert, Mrs. Hoff, and Mrs. Cullen.

It seemed, when the year started that there was lots of time before the book had to be sent to the printers, but the members of Annual Board soon found that the production of a year book like the Tower Tales is a complicated business. It involves many hours of work: busy hours with the typewriter, long hours with blank copy sheets and blanker minds, and sticky hours with the paste-jar.

There were so many head-aches: pages that did not balance, unphotogenic Purgolders, pictures that had to be taken right away, and those twenty-five more words

tower times staff

Covering the news in a school as large as East can be quite a task, as these reporters, business staff members, and typists well know. Accuracy is a must, and deadlines are another important item.

The work of the paper never lets up. Stories are assigned, tracked down, and typed. Copyreading follows and the stories are sent to the printer. Galley proofs are returned in duplicate. One set must be read and returned to the printer for correction. From the other, a dummy is prepared. Many bours are spent at the print shop, meeting last minute emergencies, and going over page proofs. Finally the paper is printed and distributed, and the hunt for new stories begins all over again.

Under the direction of Miss Eulalie Beffel, Tower Times is published about every three weeks.

It is the job of the Tower Times Business Staff to solicit the advertising and see to the paper's distribution of about 1300 copies. Dave Vander Meulen is the business manager and Mr. Kendall Finger is the adviser.

Near the end of every year, the Press Banquet is held for all members of the annual board and Tower Times Staff. At this time the editors and committee chairmen for the annual and newspaper are announced and awards are presented.

The band members and their director, Mr. Woollen, spend many grueling hours preparing for their numerous school-year appearances—concerts, parades, football half-times, basketball games, and and programs.

Each year the band votes for five deserving members who have given leadership and service to the band. This year's award-winners are Joan Foss, flute; Dick Jones, clarinet; Ann Whitney, clarinet; Ronald Nelson, saxophone; and Larry Bolen, percussion.

grade, and some members take private lessons along with the lessons Mr. Woollen gives them. The music the orchestra plays is varied. A concert usually consists of some classical selections and some popular. This year the orchetra played a medley of tunes from popular Broadway plays. The King and I, and South Pacific. Besides presenting concerts, the orchestra also provides the music for the choir's annual operetta. This year the operetta, Sweethearts, had a difficult score that the orchestra handled extremely wel. (See operetta p. 10-11)

the a cappella choir

The East High student body and community of alumni and friends look forward with delight to any choir program and come away from each with praise for soloists, members, and the director, Miss Cecile Vogelbaugh. Miss Vogelbaugh reports that this year has been no busier than the usual year, for participation in the Christmas pageant at the Capitol is an annual event, as is the spring concert, the auditorium programs, and the winter program. This year the choir and orchestra staged the

girls club

The purpose of Girls Club is to illustrate methods of improving one's grooming, health, and manners. A highlight of this year's program was the demonstration on hair styling by Mrs. Evelyn Clauder. To help in this demonstration, a number of fortunate volunteers had their hair beautifully styled.

The most interesting meeting included a syle show presented by Rendalls' Store. Models for this show were: Judy Freund, Judy DaWalt, Karen Kelly, Sue Frydenlund, Mary Bliese, and Delores Kreiser.

student council

The Student Council acts as a student governing group. The Council aims at constant improvement and service for the students of East High.

The Council membership includes one representative from each home room, five seniors elected from the whole senior class, and one representative from the Tower Tales and Tower Times. It meets every other week in room 15 under the supervision of Mr. August Vander Meulen, vice-principal.

The Council committee are: student welfare, social, auditorium, electron, and tickets. One of the more active committees is the student welfare committee, which discusses and suggests solutions for problems around school. It also deals with recommendations for scholarships.

Last fall the Student Council sent four delegates to the state-wide Wisconsin Association of Student Councils held at Wausau: Dan Farwell, Judy Lunde, Joan Keller, and Judy Amerell. The Council also sponsored various other activities, such as Clean-Up Week, and dances after the Baskethall games. The big project of Student Council this year was that of revising its constitution so that the whole student body can elect the future officers of the Council.

east side youth mayor's council

The East Side Youth Mayor's Council began the school year with a dance called "Toy Tiger." This year's dance netted $45.00 which Dick Schaus, Youth Mayor, presented to the Kiddie Kamp fund. Next on the Council's calendar of events was the homecoming dance, Koral Kickoff, East's first homecoming dance in its thirty-five years. The highlight of the evening was the crowning of Angelo Labarro and Lynn Liggett as King and Queen.

The Council's charity drive collected money for the mentally retarded children. The members collected $250.00 on the east side for this needy cause.

During spring vacation the annual East Escapades, entitled "Come to the Fair" was held. One of the high points of the evening was the spaghettieating contest.

The Council's last scheduled event of the year was the election of the new council and mayor.

A full and eventful year of service to the "purgolders" was the proud record of the 1957 East Side Youth Mayor's council.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Leadership, scholarship, character, and service to their school are the deciding factors of who is elected into the National Honor Society. Belonging to NHS is one of the highest honors for East students.

"I pledge myself to uphold the high purpose of this society to which I have been elected, striving in every way by word and deed to make its high ideals the ideals of my school and my life" are the words spoken by members when elected to National Honor Society.

Keeping Service E records and holding the initiation program for new members are responsibilities also of the NHS. Having an annual party for the NHS alumn has been a tradition of the the organization.

latin club

Lation is not a "dead language", for the Latin Club is one of the most active organizations at East. The club is in charge of selling candy at basketball games and holds many discussion meetings on various topics pertaining to Rome and the Roman Empire.

There are also certain traditional projects and events, such as the annual Latin Club Clothing Drive (which this year also included a "thread drive") and the Christmas Party, during which members participated in small-scale Olympic games. The group finished the year's activities with a picture.

Miss Jeannette Jordan is the adviser.

french club

Belonging to a language club is probably the most painless way ever devised to increase an individual's knowledge of that language.

Members of the French Club conduct their business meetings in French. They also watch film strips and slides, some of which are available from the University, about France and its people and customs.

Each year the group holds a Christmas party featuring various aspects of the French Christmas, including the legends and carols.

Miss Della Westover is their adviser.

spanish club

Spanish Club, under the direction of Mr. Grittner, enjoyed a wide variety of programs during the course of this year.

Some of the club meetings featured Spanish records and movies. The economic and political situations are also talked about.

Club president Paco Boluda, Spanish exchange student, has told the members about the Spanish teenager — his differences and similarities to the American counterpart.

A pienic has been proposed as an end to the year's program.

photography club

The aim of the Photography Club is to teach the art of photography and better methods of film development. Picture arrangement and lighting are also studied and practiced, with both amusing and amazing results. At the present time the club adviser, Mr. Kussow, will not make any estimate of how many will later become professional photographers.

projector operators club

Members of the Projector Operators Club learn about the mechanics of operating projectors and have the responsibility for the smooth operation of all the movie projectors at East. Mr. Peterson, the club's adviser, assigns members to operate the projectors in Room 15, the auditorium, or where ever movies are to be shown.

radio club

The Radio Club is divided into two groups, code and theory. Mr. Lincoln helps members in code to copy five words a minute, and they are sent "upstairs" to Mr. Lugg, who teaches them radio theory. After a member passes a theory test, he gets a novice radio amateur license that allows him to operate either his own transmitter or the one in Mr. Lugg's "back room."

Two of the members, Dave Nelson (W9PGR) and John Eisle (K9CDR) already have their general class license, which is one step above the novice license.

ushers club

Helping people find the right seats in the auditorium and keeping order at basketball and football games are only some of the duties of this very active club. The members also usher at the SWEA conventions, PTSA meetings, commencement exercises, and at the plays presented by the Madison Theater Guild. Before all and programs and basketball games, the flag-bearers present our national emblem. The adviser, Miss Ruth Conlin, is very proud of "her" boys.

library club

The original purpose of the Library Club was discussing books, but many other activities have since been added. The members check out and shelve books, locate materials for students unfamiliar with the library system, and make artistic displays for the library bulletin boards. The librarians, Mrs. Lois Blau and Mrs. Joyzele Horwitz, who advise the club, also deserve recognition for their hard work.

baton club

This year was the first year the Baton Club had new uniforms. The new gold and white uniforms made our high-stepping majorettes a sight to behold on the football field and on the basketball court. Unique and interesting formations performed by the twirlers accompanied by the East Band made half-time a bright spectacle at every game. Many hours of practice are necessary for those few minutes on the field or on the court. The Baton Club also teaches the young aspiring twirlers in Junior High. # "We've Got the Old East Side Pep!" We've Got A Team With A Rep!"

This is a cry of our cheerleaders! At every game this traditional cheer is heard. Each year new cheers are added to the old faithfuls. This year the addition was "Sound Off". While many cheers aren't changed, the patterns in which they have been done are. One of the strongest points of the East club is its wonderful cheers! The cheers are an unforgettable part of the game. Many times alumni can be seen out-shouting the students. Here at East, the cheerleaders are an outstanding part of our school.

During the football and basket season, the cheers are heard echoing through the auditorium during pep programs. A pep program is presented by the cheerleaders each week that we have a home game. Although many hours go into the planning of a single program, the satisfying result is an entertaining program in which enthusiasm is felt through the whole auditorium!

Rain or snow our cheerleaders are there on the job cheering our team on to victory!

FUTURE NURSES OF AMERICA

This club is open to all student interested in nursing. Its members enjoy movies and interesting talks given by people in the field of medicine. These talks help the girls decide what phase of nursing they want to study. The climax of the club's activities is the Capping Tea. At this time all seniors girls who have been accepted into some hospital receive their caps, a symbol of their future position.

JUNIOR RED CROSS CLUB

Service is the most important purpose of this club. Pictured below is one of its many and varied activities — making valentine—tray mats for hospitals.

Under the directon of Miss Betty Scott, members have seen movies about Red Cross programs in other areas, made Christmas carol books and picture books for hospitalized children, and heard a speaker from Cambridge, Wisconsin.

Club members are B. Martinson, president; C. Marks, vice-president; C. Helmus, secretary; F. Hauptmann and L. Liggett, senfor delegates; B. Fell and S. Felt, junior delegates; S. #### future teachers of america

The Future Teachers club, one of the largest clubs at East, gives students who are interested in education a preview of the vocation they have chosen and helps them decide what level of teaching they wish to enter. This year is the second East High students have had a chance to attend the state-wide teachers' convention in Milwankee. But for the first time they could attend the SWEA convention held in Madison in February. Here they heard interesting talks on the different phases of education.

The seniors of the club are also given another privilege, this being that they visit nearby schools and observe how classes are set up. In some cases the members actually conducted the classes. The club meetings, which provide education and entertainment, include programs of speakers, movies, and lively discussions.

Mr. Otterson briefs FTA members on the day's activities at the SWEA convention: M. Bontly, M. Griswold, K. Hewitt, A. Whitney, S. Myers, C. Moir, B. Zwank, J. Russell, M. Heidt, M. J. Jinkins.

future farmers of america

The FFA club gives to the boys one of the best chances of proving their skills in farming. The annual father-son banquet near the end of the year is the occasion when acknowledgments are given to the boys who have done outstanding work in the department. The Orientation Day rural contest gives the boys a chance to develop leadership. This year East should be proud of the FFA boys, because they gained top ratings in the state-wide contest.

future homemakers of america

This year our FIIA club was formerly installed into the National chapter of the FIIA. The girls attended the district in Sun Prarie in the fall where they had a chance to meet and compare ideas with other girls throughout the state. Has anyone noticed the decorations in the exhibit windows? These were made by the girls in the club. The homes of the members, no doubt, will be much benefited by the knowledge these girls gain and use.

THE TEAM

After opening the season with an impressive victory over Oshkosh 19 — 13, we looked forward to a great year with Sonny Hill as quarterback. But our bright future was momentarily shattered when Sonny broke his arm the following week in a game we lost to Horlick 26 - 20. With Dave Hoppman and Ron Staley handling the signal calling, East defeated a surprisingly tough Central team 7 - 6.

The following week, East played some of its best ball of this season, but it wasn't enough to bring down mighty Kenosha, Kenosha won 19 13. Ron Staley a tremendous job of passing and running. East came back in the next game, defeating Beloit 8 -- O, and then downed Janesville in a thrilling 33 - 28 homecoming contest. Heartbreak prevailed the following week when East overcame a 25 - 0 deficit in the first half only to lose the game to Park in the closing minutes, 31 — 27.

The next contest was with West, a game to decide the city championship, and to decide whether West would permanently retain the Shrine Trophy. Every member of the team played their best in that game; Gordy Hart, who scored three touchdowns, Gary Peterson, who scored the winning touchdown and led in ground gaining - excellent examples of the team's effort.

The team defied statistics, threw out percentages, and gave it their all. A job well done.

The main asset of East's team was its strength in the reserves. All season, the line was out weighed, but not out fought. Ron Staley and Gordy Hart were the best pass combination in the city. Ron Staley, Dave McCloskoy and Gordy Hart were placed on The Capital Times All-City Football Team at the completion of the season.

CROSS COUNTRY

What started out as a promising season with two wins and a second place, ended up as a sad year for Coach Mullen's crew. The "letdown" was due to injuries to keymen, Dave Innis and Greg Schill.

We defeated Monona-Grove and Central in our first two matches and then took second place in a triangular meet at West. After that we were without a victory for the remainder of the season. However, we came in eighth in our class at the state meet to end the season.

Dave Innis, injured as he was, finished eleventh in the state meet, breaking the speed record of East athletes for the 2.2 mile. The top four men on the squad were Ed Wilson, Don Fosnot, Leroy Franke and Dave Innis.

Cross Country is a stamina sport. It takes remarkable endurance to run a 2.2 mile course which is over hill and turf, rather than a einder track. Coach Mullen is hoping for a good team next year with many of the returning sophomores and Juniors.

It's a long, hard grind, those daily practice sessions.

CURLING

The East curling team had its best season since the introduction of this Scottish sport at East. The Peterson Rink, composed of Dan Farwell, Greg Schill, Jim Tygum, and Gary Peterson, Skip, won the Madison round-robin with a 10-2 record. The Hanson Rink, composed of Jim Ellison, Ron Ghering, Jim Rathbun, and Dick Hansen, Skip, tied for second place (with a 9-3 record) with West and Wisconsin High. The Heath Rink, composed of Jim Kolstad, Bill Bakken, Dick Pfanku, and Bill Heath, Skip, ended in fifth place with a 7-5 record.

Although all three rinks failed to place in the Madison Bonspiel, the Peterson rink, however, won the first trophy in East's history by winning the second event in the Poynette High School Bonspiel. This rink also reached the finals of the thrd event in the State Invitational Bonspiel at Portage only to lose to Wausau 7-6.

HOCKEY

For the past several years, interest in hockey has grown among the student body. As a result, the school administration decided to make hockey an official sport at East.

Rex Foster, a new teacher at East, was named coach of the newly organized squad.

The results from the first team were gratifying. The team came through with a 4 win, 3 lost record. In fact, East was the only tram to beat Madson West, a school that has had hockey for several years. The team copped second place in the city standings.

One of the highlights of the season was the journey to Merrill. The boys racked up Merrill 11-0 in what was probably the boys' best effort of the year.

After a solid start in the first year, and with several underclassmen capable of good play, hockey is sure to thrive at East in years to come. Congratulations to Coach Rex Foster and to the hoekey squad.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

East had what might be considered a good season this year. Besides finishing fourth in the Big Eight Conference, they won the Waupan regional championship and copped consolation at the Wisconsin Dells sectional.

East had a very erratic start, however. The team just couldn't hit right against conference teams and dropped their first four league games to beloit (67-59), West (57-44), Park (63-56), and Janesville (67-56) respectively. But East kept the slate clean against non-conference focs, beating Wisconsin Dells (56-52), and whipping Oshkosh (64-49) and Wausau (66-60).

January can certainly be considered the Purple and Gold's lucky month as they swept through five conference opponents in succession, beating Central twice (67-55, 57-399) and Kenosha (73-68), Beloit (77-65) and Horlick (64-44) once each.

But the second of February brought an end to this, although East played tremendous ball, West stopped us in their gym for the second time that season, but by a much smaller margin (58-53). From that time on, East was an "offand-on" ball club. Angle LaBarro goes up to try and get the ball from John Braun of West in a City Series game. West won 57-44.

Ron Staley goes high for a rebound against Central Gordy Hart and Dave Hesig are other East players. East beat Central for the city series victory.

The next two games, East pulled out two victories beating Park (59-49) and racking up Kenosha (69-57) that season. Then came the big game with Janesville. It was a wild and woolly affair with East trailing much of the way. But in the last quarter East threw their zone press at the Bluebirds and practically brought the house down when they cut the score to 64-60, it appeared as though the blue birds weren't going to be undefeated after all, but East finally lost 74-60. The last conference game of the season matched us with Horlick: we were beaten 61-49. East finished with a 7-7 conference record.

East roared through their regional, whipping Columbus (64-38), Beaver Dam (63-53), and Fond du Lac (92-70) which was the easiest game of the season. But East blew it all at the Dells Sectional and lost a close one to Randolph, 64-59. East then followed up the next night and took consolation honors by whipping Patch Grove, 64-42.

Our tenth graders came up with a good season this year finishing with a 9-5 conference record and a tie for second place in the Big Eight. To get an idea how the team will shape up next year, last year's juniors took undisputed first place in the conference as sophomores. Ateam possessing first and second place winners for two years ought to go a long way.

WRESTLING

Coach Claude Hungerford's wrestling team had a good season this year. What started out as a poor beginning ended up with the team winning every dual match except the one with Stevens Point. East took the first annual city meet, the sectional tournament and finally tied for second in the state.

East took eight men to the sectional and seven of them won either first or second place and qualified for the state meet. The eighth man Craig Butterfield, lost to the eventual state champion in his weight class.

The hopes for next year are fairly good since only four team members are graduating seniors. The graduating foursome are Matt Marty, Terry Rogers, state champ Dick Borchardt, and Don Klongland.

The wrestling team needs two things for a good season next year. These are more student backing to help cheer our school on and a good turnout of sophomores, juniors, and seniors for positions on the team. Congratulations to Coach Hungerford's team on a great year.

TRACK

East's eindermen started the '57 season as they placed 7th out of 17 teams entered in the West Relays and scored  $13\frac{1}{2}$  points.

The team's showing at these relays brought out the fact that East had a much stronger team than anticipated, Dave Heisig, was city champion in the polevault, clears the bar easily, as he displays championship form.

Tom Rich and Gary Peterson, East's two flery aprinters, go through a practice trial in the 100 yd. dash. Tom was city champ in the 100 and 220 yd. dashes.

and they would really have a successful season.

On April 18th East hosted Watertown in a duel meet. Tom Rich, the fastest boy our school has had for a long time, was the only double winner ,taking the 100 and 220 yd. dash. East swept nearly every event as they won the meet handily, 73-45.

May 4th found East traveling down to Rockford, Illinois, for participation in the East Rockford Relays. The team did put forth the best all season, scoring 39 points taking fourth out of 8 teams, and showing an allaround good performance. The team also won the city Championship, scoring 94½ points.

Probably the outstanding job by an individual was Dave Innis's 2:04.8 half mile run, although Tom Rich — ran a 10.1 100 yard dash but could cop only a 3rd place in that event.

The 1957 season could be called one of East's better track seasons without a doubt.

BASEBALL

Baseball at East, in comparison to football and basketball, is often unnoticed by the student body. Nevertheless, East's baseball team compiled one of the best records of any team during the 1956-57 season.

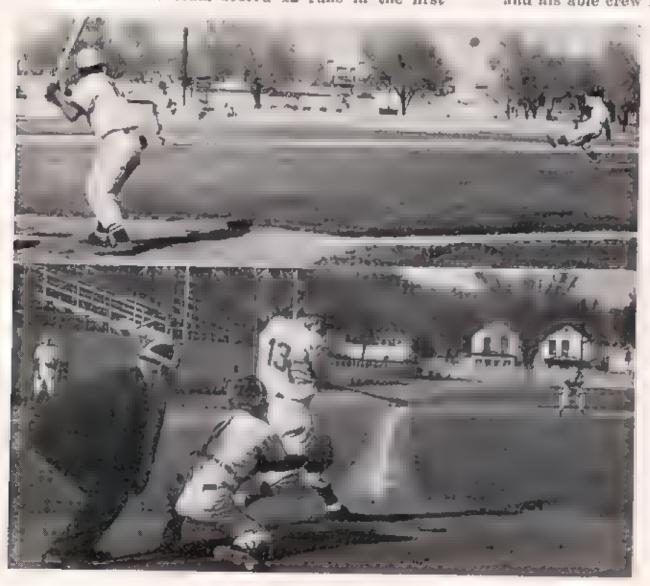

As of May, the team was second in the Big Eight Conference with five wins and one loss. The only defeat was to West, and that was only because the practice games were rained out.

The best game so far was the second meeting with West. The team scored 12 runs in the first mning. The game was a pushover from then on with the final score being 16-4.

Dave Goff not only pitched very consistent ball but the team also supported him with good, solid hitting. Paul Radl, Frank Wichern, Dave Vander Meulen, Bob Powers and Sonny Hill were the power-houses of the squad.

This was only the second year in which there was a Big Eight baseball conference. Because of a conference ruling, the team didn't compete in the state tournament. Congratulations to Coach Belisle and his able crew for a fine year.

Dave Goff hurls a pitch at a Park batter. Larry Odegaard is behind the plate.

An East batter clouts a hard liner in a game against Park. (Note the ball in the upper right corner.)

TENNIS

East's tennis team has had its poorest season of the last few years. This is due mainly to the lack of an experienced varsity squad. Only the first three men, Martin Clarke, Roald Mockrud, and Dan Farwell, had had previous experience in competition.

This was Mr. Kaether's first year as coach succeeding Robert Brill, The team lost its first match to Stoughton, 7-0. As of May, the team has beaten only Wisconsin High, 4-2.

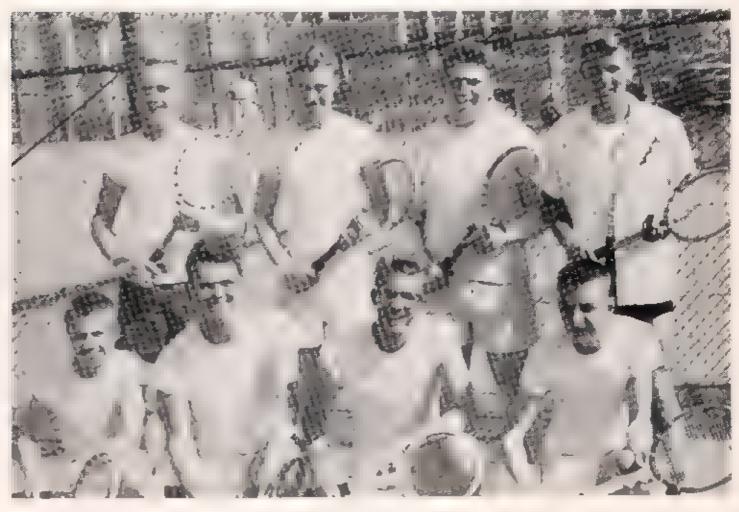

Tennis is a difficult sport to play well in school competition. The boys tried their best, but it wasn't good enough for Big Eight competition.

The outlook for next year is poor as there is only one underclassman, Tom Branton, of the first four. Coach Kaether hopes to do his best in developing a better underclassmen squad.

Roald Mockrud is executing a backhand lob shot. Roald played number 2 position on the team.

Dan Farwell concentrates on a backhand stroke.

GOLF

With only five sophomores, four juniors, and two seniors out for golf, there wasn't much hope for a good year. The new golf coach, Rex Foster, had troubles winning this year. West was very powerful again and Central was better than usual.

The big meets this year were the Janesville Invitational, the Madison West Sectional, and finally the state meet. Ray Hustad was the number one man and the most consistent golfer on the team. Joe Mavis and Pat Kohl were much improved golfers this year, while Ed Peabody and Jerry Bassett were inconsistent. East looks forward to a much better season next year.

Ray Hustad, who had the best record of the team, practices with his iron

letter "M"

Because it is the only way a girl can earn a letter at East, the letter "M" is a wonderful and exciting honor to receive. Only hard-working, sports-minded girls ever earn enough points to get a letter.

Every year there are many girls who take part in sports outside of school. All who participate in after-school sports earn points toward that letter "M", which amounts to a total of 850 points. Points can also be accumulated by bowling, swimming, horesback riding, golfing, skating, playing baseball, or taking part in other sports. For each of these sports, the girls may turn in up to 100 points.

At the right is a picture of the girls who were fortunate enough to win a letter "M". Front Row: Judy Ragon, Margaret Griswold, Nancy Clark, Nancy Hustad.

Mrs. Joanne Anderson, who has taken Miss A. Schrader's place during the second semester this year, has also been acting as the adviser for Home Room 131. East High, and especially the girl's sports group, heartily welcome her.

speedaway

"Kick it hard!" "Throw it to me!" "Point!"
These remarks can often be heard during the wild excitment of a game of Speedaway.

Speedaway, a relatively new sport at East, is the first sport the girls play in the fall. Good throwing, running ability, and close guarding are all a part of this exciting, tast-moving game.

This game is quite different from others in that the girls must be just as skllful with their feet as they are with their hands. It really is a rugged game; and, to the girls, it is their version of football.

Here a girl is guarded by an opponent in a class-time game. If she catches the long throw, it might result in another point for her side.

volleyball

Volleyball started late in October for girls interested in this after school sport. The two pictures to the right represent the first and second place teams of the Volleyball round-robin tournament. Marilya Dvorak's first place sophomore team remained undefeated throughout the complete season. Sharon Davis' second place senior team lost two games, but still successfully held the second place position.

basketball

Basketball is one of the many sports offered to the girls here at East. They may participate in it both in class and in after school sports. Girls' basketball is quite different from the boy's sport, as their team consists of six players, three guards and three forwards. In a game the three guards remain on one side of the center line, leaving the three forwards on the other side shooting for laskets. The guards are never allowed to shoot.

The excited players facing the camera are Nancy Hustad, Nancy Garske, Mary Jane Heidt, and Kathy Johnson.

softball

Catcher Janice Crapp squats down low, waiting for the ball; but, with a mighty swing, Blanche Jess wallops the ball for a long hit.

Softball is an exciting game, and the girls enjoy playing it during the wonderful days of spring. This game gives them their first chance to get out-of-doors, and it is the best way to work off all their excess energy from the winter months.

With softball comes the few remaining days of school and the girls enjoy playing this game, which calls for a lot of teamwork.

bowling

Bowling is the only sport at East High that stresses individual skill rather than teamwork. Girls enjoy bowling because it is a sport they will probably play even after they graduate.

Bowling at East is open to all senior high girls. They form teams, which go to the Arcade Bowling Alleys either Thursday or Friday each week.

dance

Dancing creates an appreciation of everyday objects. It gives the girls more awareness of materials and objects. Superior creative dancers can readily create a story in rhythm about anything from a small handkerchief to a piece of sandpaper.

The two dance pictures to the right illustrate a number of techniques in dancing.

The upper picture is Dorothy Hughes displaying grace, poise, and imagination. Frances Hauptmann is creating an air of grace, and co-ordination.

The lower picture illustrates rhythm, flexibility, and imagination, as Jane Nedderman, Mary Jane Heidt, and Pat Kernan dance to "Barefoot Contessa".

tennis

The first sign of Spring brings out all the tennis enthusiasts from among hundreds of Americans, young and old. As a sign of enthusiasm for the game, a number of Madison's tennis courts are rarely vacant on a beautiful summer day.

Tennis is not a game of just swatting the ball back and forth over the net. It requires split-timing and accurate judgment. Such skill is acquired only through many hours of heavy practice and hard work.

Administration

We are all familiar with the many duties of East High's administrators. Few of us, however, realize their qualifications which have made it possible for them to assume their duties.

Mr. Barrett received his B.A. from Bradley University in 1925 and his M.A. from the University of Minnesota in 1935. He came to East in 1929 as a mathematics teacher and athletic coach. When Mr. Randall retired in 1954, Mr. Barrett succeeded him.

Mr. Vander Meuten was graduated from Carroll College with a Ph. B. degree and from the University of Wisconsin with a M.A. degree, His educational work before coming to East included child guidance in Madison.

These two men are responsible for the successful operation of East High School.

Typing notices, making out programs, checking attendance, and many office tasks are all in a day's work for this staff.

Miss Mary McCarville, the school nurse, has numerous duties which are of great importance to us. She safeguards the health of all the students in the school; she takes temperatures, checks eyes and teeth, these being only part of her job.

Though some students take the clean windows and halls and a warm building in the winter for granted, these are the people who are in charge of maintenance at East.

Faculty

SENIOR

east escapades

The turles seem to be causing a great deal of concern for M. Mackie, (Seated) R. Stolper, N. Frailing, S. Larson, K. Kelly, M. Nelson, and D. Walsvick at the East Escapades, Thursday April 25, at the East Side Community Center

Dick Schaus stands by ready to give the prizes to the winners of the spaghetti-eating contest. Pat Nyland gives a few words of encouragement to Carol Moir and Carl Zielke, who are trying to win the prizes.

Taking their chances at winning or losing a fortune of "play money" at one spin of the roulette wheel are J. Domini, J. Gilbertson, R. Peterson, P. Moran, J. McGuire, B. Miller, R. Mockrud, (back to camera) and M. Clarke.

ACTIVITIES

Putting up some of the campaign posters for senior officer elections are some of the campaign managers and assistant managers: J. Lampe, P. Metz, J. Klongland, D. Pond, and M. Carlson.

Dan Farwell and Dick Hansen, as usher club members, are helping parents locate teachers at P.T.S.A. in November,

Jim Rasmussen is planting the tree on Arbor Day, May 3, 1957, as Lula Bowers, Nancy Flom, Pat Clarke, Sonny Hill, and Judy Todd make helpful (?) comments,

Edwin Alvin Erstad April 20, 1939 June 14, 1955

Gail Paulett Schloemer June 20, 1939 August 25, 1955

In Memoriam

"There is no death! The stars go down to rise upon some other shore,
And bright in Heaven's jeweled crown
They shine for evermore."

- John L. McCreery

The graduating class and the faculty express their deepest sympathy to the friends and relatives of these students.

"None who e'er knew her can believe her dead;

Though, should she die, they deem it well might be

Her spirit took its everlasting flight

In summer's glory, by the sunset sea.

That onward through the Golden Gate is fled.

Ah, where that bright soul is cannot be night."

- R. W. Guilder
